Hannah has planned a range of different activities including seasonal events in-store, which have always been well received by participants. She creates a good rapport with those engaging in her sessions, and adapts her offerings to cater to different ages and skill levels. It has always been a pleasure to work her.”

“Badass Craft Club ran a Book Binding workshop for the staff in my department for a wellbeing day at my school. Hannah was great to work with and everyone loved the session. Her communication and planning was excellent, and she created a lovely warm atmosphere during the workshop, allowing my staff to relax and have fun while creating gorgeous notebooks for them to use at work. We had an excellent experience and would highly recommend!”
